²¹⁶STORY

A sacrifice for the greater good.

Every ten years, a sacrifice must be made to protect your people from the Abyss, a place as worshiped as it is feared...

This time you were chosen and thrown into the darkness...

Nobody has ever returned but perhaps you can achieve the impossible ?

Welcomed by Nyx, living alone with its boulders in a cave, you have survived for ten years.

With his help you will try to reach a portal that could finally let you escape the depth of the Abyss in this platformer.

FAY

Fay is a young servant of the imperial palace.

She never knew her parents and has always grown up attending the Celestial court.

As a young adult, Fay finds herself designated to be sacrificed during the next ceremony.

Determined to die for her people, she submits to her fate and dives into the Abyss, terrified but proud to know that she is saving her folks.

NYX

Nyx is a sky traveler who lost his people in an Abyss-related cataclysm.

Wandering from city to city to learn more about the origin and manipulation of dark energy.

Welcomed by the emperor of the Celestial people, Nyx was finally designated as the next sacrifice.

After many decades he will meet Fay, shattering the perspectives of the bitterly lonely man...
